

Common Course Outline
FLGR 201
Intermediate German I
3 Semester Hours
The Community College of Baltimore County

Description

Intermediate German I

Prepares novice students for cross-cultural communication through the study of language and culture; provides connections to additional bodies of knowledge and expressions of values through the arts.

Prerequisite: FLGR 102 or two years of high school German

Prerequisite

Prerequisite is FLGR 102 or two years of high school German.

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

1. engage in conversation, provide and obtain information, express feelings and emotions, and exchange opinions at an intermediate-mid level;
2. understand and interpret written and spoken German on a variety of topics at an intermediate-mid level;
3. present information, concepts, and ideas to an audience of listeners or readers on a variety of topics at an intermediate-mid level;
4. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the practices and perspectives of German culture;
5. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the products and perspectives of German culture;
6. reinforce and further their knowledge of other disciplines through the German language;
7. acquire information and recognize the distinctive viewpoints that are only available through the German language and its cultures;
8. demonstrate understanding of the nature of language through comparisons of the German language and their own;
9. demonstrate understanding the concept of culture through comparisons of German cultures and their own;
10. use German both within and beyond the school setting;
11. show evidence of becoming life-long learners by using German for personal enjoyment and enrichment;
12. express information about master works in literature, music and the arts that reflect German culture at an intermediate-mid level;
13. recognize major cultural artifacts of the German language;
14. develop multicultural sensitivity;
15. apply technology for language acquisition.

Major Topics

At an intermediate-mid level the students will:

- I. communicate in the German language
- II. listen in the German language.
- III. read in the German language.
- IV. write in the German language.
- V. possess insight into the nature of German language and culture
- VI. understand the impact of computers and technology on the acquisition of German.
- VII. distinguish major cultural artifacts.
- VIII. have an in-depth analysis of master works of art, literature and music.
- IX. gain knowledge of cultural sensitivity and tolerance.

Course Requirements

1. Grading/Exams: Grading procedures will be determined by the individual faculty member but will include the following: at least three chapter quizzes and 2 major exams (including the final), daily evaluation of oral proficiency in the target language.
2. Writing: The individual faculty member will determine at least 2 specific writing assignments which will include a summary of one research project on the culture (i.e. art, dress, foods, literature, and music). When grading projects, special attention will also be given to:
 - clear communication;
 - cultural sensitivity;
 - the ability to select pertinent sources and information;
 - acknowledgment of the impact of computers and technology.

Other Course Information

This course is a Humanities and Arts general education core course and a Humanities and Arts elective.

Authentic material from CDs, tapes, videos, and the internet will be used whenever possible.