

Common Course Outline

MNGT 140

Business Law I

3 Semester Hours

The Community College of Baltimore County

I. Catalog Description

3 credits hours

Business Law I

Introduces the law and its application to the field of business and industry; develops framework for the further study of business.

II. General Course Objectives

When the student completes the course he/she will be able to:

- A. Demonstrate familiarity with basic legal terminology
- B. Recognize law-oriented business problems in the areas of real and personal property, sales and leases of personal property, Title and Risk lost, consumer protection and negotiability of instruments, security devices and agency
- C. Apply recognized legal principles to specific business problems
- D. Summarize and contrast the classes of law and how each relate to business and industry
- E. To explain the objectives of business law in its relationship to corporate and international relations
- F. To understand the distinction between the civil, criminal and federal court systems
- G. To recognize the personnel involved in the various court systems

III. Methods of Instruction:

- A. Lecture
- B. Discussions
- C. Exercises
- D. Case problems
- E. Audio-visual

IV. Method of Evaluation:

- A. Class participation
- B. Written case problems
- C. Mid-term/Final examinations
- D. Student presentations of research

V. Course Requirements:

- A. General chapters examination
- B. Mid-term examination
- C. Mid-term paper and/or projects
- D. Final examination
- E. Class attendance and participation