

Course Outline

SPCM 291-293

Independent Study: Communications

1-3 Semester Hours

The Community College of Baltimore County

Description

Independent Study: Communications

Provides an independent study experience in Speech, Computer Graphics and Visual Communication, Interior Design, Mass Communications, Journalism, Video Production Technology, or Interpreter Preparation. Challenges the seriously motivated student to expand his/her horizons in one or a combination of communications disciplines; from one to three credits.

1-3 credits; 3-9 hours of lab per week.

Prerequisite: Written permission of the program coordinator.

Overall Course Objectives

Course objectives will be determined by the instructor.

Major Topics

Major topics will be determined by the instructor.

Course Requirements

Course requirements will be determined by the instructor.