

CCBC is:

- One college comprised of three main campuses (Catonsville, Dundalk, Essex) and two extension centers (Hunt Valley, Owings Mills).
- The largest provider of higher education and work force development training in the Baltimore metropolitan area, offering A.A., A.A.T., A.F.A., A.S., and A.A.S. degrees as well as credit certificates and career training certification and licensure in more than 100 programs.
- An integral part of Baltimore County, partnering with government, business and local civic organizations to enrich the community.

A CCBC education is:

Top-notch

CCBC's highly qualified and dedicated faculty teach small classes in state-of-the-art facilities. Here they can work closely with students, giving them the best opportunity to learn.

Flexible

CCBC offers traditional degree options, transfer options and non-credit certifications for those seeking to launch a career, upgrade the one they already have, or simply enrich their lives.

Convenient

Days, nights, weekends and online, CCBC offers courses at three campuses, two extension centers and a variety of high schools and community centers. www.cbcmd.edu/directory

Supportive

CCBC's faculty and staff work hard to ensure that every student has the opportunity to succeed.

An incredible value

CCBC offers quality, flexibility, convenience and support in higher education and workforce training at a very affordable price.
