

Common Course Outline
AVMT 251
Airport Management

The Community College of Baltimore County

Description

AVMT 251- 3 credits

Airport Management

Introduces the historical development of modern airports; discusses business and operational factors, airport regulations and government agencies, labor and personnel relations, security, safety, facility maintenance, airport tenants, funding, airport design and expansion planning, marketing, and public relations.

Prerequisite: AVMT 101 and AVMT 141

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course the student must be able to:

- A. Understand the historical development of airports
- B. Identify the operational factors affecting airports
- C. Understand regulations affecting airport management
- D. Understand environmental and legal concerns associated with airport management
- E. Identify facility planning and maintenance issues
- F. Understand public airport funding
- G. Understand the importance of marketing and public relations
- H. Understand the factors associated with airport design and security measures

Major Topics

- A. Airport development
- B. Business and organizational factors
- C. Operational factors
- D. Airport regulations
- E. Environmental regulations
- F. Legal Issues
- G. Marketing and public relations
- H. Airport facility maintenance
- I. Airport tenants
- J. Airport funding
- K. Airport layout and security

Course Requirements

- A. Mid-term and/or periodic examination
- B. Term paper and/or projects
- C. Comprehensive final examination
- D. Attendance and participation

