

The Community College of Baltimore County

Course Outline GEOA 181-183 Cooperative Education, Geospatial Applications 1-3 Semester Hours

Description

Cooperative Education, Geospatial Applications provides opportunity for application and expansion of Geospatial skills in a paid practical experience. Credit is based on the total number of hours worked and the attainment of objectives.

Prerequisites: GEOA 110 or consent of instructor

Written approval from program coordinator must be submitted for registration

Overall Course Objectives

The specific course objectives will be determined in consultation with the student and the employer.

Major Topics

The specific course topics will be determined in consultation with the student and the employer.

Course Requirements

The specific course requirements will be determined in consultation with the student and the employer.

Other Course Information

This course is a GEOA elective course.

Course credits can be 1 (GEOA 181), 2 (GEOA 182) or 3 (GEOA 183) depending on scope and number of hours to be worked.

Can be taken twice for credit for a maximum of 6 credits

Individual faculty members may include additional course objectives, major topics, and other course requirements to the minimum expectations stated in this Outline.