

Common Course Outline

MNGT 207

Business Finance

3 Semester Hours

The Community College of Baltimore County

I. Catalog Description

3 credits hours

Business Finance

Surveys financial management and cover both basic principles and current problems; studies the role of the financial manager and financial risks, returns, and objectives in the environment of financial institutions and the capital markets.

II. General Course Objectives

When the student completes the course he/she will be able to:

- A. Identify financial characteristics of business firms
- B. Analyze financial statements with the use of capitalization techniques and financial ratios
- C. Compute a business firm's cost of capital
- D. Express and understanding of the management of working capital and fixed assets
- E. Identify and utilize short, intermediate, and long-term sources of credit
- F. Identify and utilize the various sources of capital
- G. Evaluate the firm's capital structure in terms of recapitalization, reorganization, and liquidation
- H. Evaluate a business firm's progress toward its primary goals for financial decision making purposes
- I. Relate, and demonstrate problem problem-solving ability through using both financial management theory and specific methods and formulas

III. Methods of Instruction:

- A. Lectures
- B. Discussions
- C. Exercises
- D. Case problems

IV. Method of Evaluation:

- A. Quizzes
- B. Class participation
- C. Written case problems
- D. Mid-term and Final examinations
- E. Student presentations of research