- I love to write novels and poetry.
- I want to travel the world to meet and understand new people and to also see and experience different places.

What has helped you succeed so far at CCBC?

Time management, positive attitude, and perseverance are three things that have helped me succeed so far at CCBC.

Why did you decide to become an FYE Mentor?

I wanted to be involved in my college, do something I would enjoy, as well as gain experience. I found that becoming an FYE Mentor fit into all three perfectly.
