

CELEBRATE JUNETEENTH

Truth Enlightens Our Path to Discover Joy and Freedom

The Black Leadership Advocacy Caucus (BLAC) of CCBC cordially invites all to attend a festive Juneteenth gathering on the CCBC Dundalk campus. This event features vendor tables, a BLAC silent auction fundraiser, free food, music, and themed expressions to celebrate freedom.

3rd Annual CCBC Commemorative Celebration of Juneteenth

Tuesday, June 09, 2026

12 Noon – 3:00 PM

Held at the CCBC Dundalk Campus

Outdoor Quad facing the Alvin Lloyd Center and the Career Building

Rain location: Inside the Lloyd Center

Juneteenth marks a significant historical event in 1865 when Union troops marched into Galveston, TX to proclaim the release of all remaining people held in slavery after the end of the Civil War. Juneteenth was first recognized as an official U.S. national holiday in 2021, but it has been celebrated in African American communities for generations.

Community College of Baltimore County
CCBC Dundalk Campus
7200 Sollers Point Road
Baltimore, MD 21222

Open to all campuses and community guests.
For more information email an event organizer.

eharris@ccbcmd.edu

All Are Welcome. Every One of Us Counts

Hosted by BLAC
Black Leadership
Advocacy Caucus
of CCBC

