

Common Course Outline

ALHT 200

Health Foundations

1 Credit

Community College of Baltimore County

Description

ALHT 200 – Health Foundations provides the awarding of articulated credits following the completion of a CCBC Workforce Training Certificate Program or a recognized and accepted health care program. This course acknowledges the introduction to the theoretical knowledge of core health concepts including health, the health care system, infection control, and annual health care competencies.

1 Credit

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the Allied Health program

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Describe the definition of health and the impact of the area of study on the health continuum;
2. Discuss the infection control chain and the importance of infection control practices in relation to health and wellness;
3. Perform aseptic techniques;
4. Complete health care competencies (fire/safety, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act [HIPPA])

Major Topics

Topics are related to health career foundations include but not limited to health, health care systems, infection control and HIPPA.

Course Requirements

Completion of content within the CCBC Workforce Training program of study or completion of a recognized and approved allied health program.

Grading/Exams

Credit is given in this course for prior learning. There is no grade associated with the course.

Other Course Information

This course is a core course for the Allied Health major.

Revised date: 10/2017