

Common Course Outline
261-3
Travel Studies

1-3 Credit Hours

The Community College of Baltimore County

Description

This course maximizes the learning that is possible in a variety of fields of study through first hand experience. It is applicable to a wide range of disciplines in the arts, humanities, and professional fields. Although site visits are not the exclusive learning experience and must be supplemented by more conventional learning methods such as lectures and reading, this course relies predominantly on contact with the field of study in its natural setting.

Prerequisites: none

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course the student should be able to:

1. demonstrate a basic understanding of the historical development of the topic in question:
2. demonstrate an understanding of the current cultural context of the topic in question:
3. as a result of their travel experience, demonstrate knowledge, both verbal and written, on a selected topic of study.

Major Topics

To be set by the program, or travel study course director adopting the course credits.

Course Requirements

Participants will be required to demonstrate learning through:

1. An individual project;
2. An oral presentation.

Other Course Information

