

Common Course Outline

WLIN 201

Intermediate Italian I

3 Credits

The Community College of Baltimore County

Description

WLIN 201 – 3 credits – Intermediate Italian I develops cross-cultural communication and global citizenship through the acquisition of reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills in Italian at an intermediate level. It provides connections to other disciplines and cultures through the study of Italian and develops an awareness of the cultural contributions and socio-political contexts of diverse, often underrepresented groups throughout the Italian-speaking world. Topics related to local and global diversity provide the context through which language skills are taught and learned. Communicative competence is increasingly emphasized through production in the Italian language, and learning is supported by instructional technologies.

3 Credits

Prerequisites: WLIN 102 or placement according to the World Language Placement Guidelines

Course Requirements

Grading/exams: Grading procedures will be determined by the individual faculty members but will include the following:

- Exams: All faculty members will administer a minimum of four exams, including a midterm and a final exam. Each exam will assess reading, writing, listening, and awareness of topics related to culture and diversity. The final and midterm exams will assess speaking. In face-to-face classes, all exams will be administered in the classroom.
- Oral Communication: Oral proficiency in Italian will be developed daily through communicative activities. Students will be required to develop and deliver at least one oral presentation on a cultural-diversity related topic using multimedia technology in Italian at an intermediate level.
- Writing: At least two specific writing assignments related to culture and diversity are required:
 1. The approved GREATs project, which must assess at least 5 of the 7 general education outcomes, is worth at least 10% of the total course grade. This writing assignment is a research project that emphasizes culture and diversity as they relate to the experiences of underrepresented groups in Italian-speaking contexts. It will be written in English, and it must be 4 pages. This writing assignment must demonstrate:
 - clear communication in written academic English
 - awareness of culture and diversity
 - the ability to select and incorporate pertinent sources and information
 2. At least one other writing assignment must be written in Italian, using vocabulary and grammar at an intermediate level on a topic related to culture and diversity, and must be 1-2 pages. This writing assignment must demonstrate:
 - clear communication at an intermediate level in Italian
 - the ability to analyze issues related to culture and diversity (ass appropriate at an intermediate level)
- Language Learning Software: This course is technologically enhanced by language learning software, which is a required component of the course.

Students are required to utilize appropriate academic resources.
