Transfer Plan

Community College of Baltimore County

A.A.S. Degree in Interpreter Preparation and A.A. in American Sign Language and Deaf Culture to Stevenson University Online B.S. in Professional Studies

This transfer plan is intended for students pursuing both the A.A.S Degree in Interpreter Preparation and the A.A. in American Sign Language and Deaf Culture at Community College of Baltimore County who are interested in pursuing a B.S. in Professional Studies at Stevenson University Online. The equivalencies below demonstrate how a student can meet both the requirements of the associate degree and prepare for a seamless transfer to Stevenson University Online. Any student who enters Stevenson with an A.A. or A.S. degree will have completed all general education requirements with the exception of Composition II if not taken at the community college. Please note:

- Only courses that have course equivalencies are displayed. This guide does not show all transferable courses from this college. It also does not display all Stevenson University Online courses that will fulfill a specific requirement.
- Stevenson University will transfer the 23 elective credits students earned at CCBC through completing the National Interpreter Certification (RID) or CI AND CT Certifications (RID), and will transfer credits granted by CCBC through Departmental Exams for the following INTR/ASLS courses: ASLS 214, INTR 116, 216, 220, 230, 224, 228. Additionally, SUO accepts credits earned through CLEP, DSST, AP, and IB.
